

Julie Smith Named as Rockville Correctional Facility Superintendent

Media Contact:

Department of Correction

Java Ahmed

(317) 234-1693

E-mail: jahmed@doc.in.gov

“Ms. Smith has made significant contributions throughout her career in corrections. I am confident that her broad range of experience will make her a solid leader at the facility.”

J. David Donahue,
Commissioner

Indianapolis, Indiana - (June 20, 2006) - The Indiana Department of Correction announced today the appointment of Julie Smith as Superintendent of the Rockville Correctional Facility in Parke County, effective June 26, 2006.

"I am excited to offer Ms. Smith a promotion as the new Superintendent of the Rockville Correctional Facility," said Commissioner J. David Donahue. "Ms. Smith has made significant contributions throughout her career in corrections. I am confident that her broad range of experience will make her a solid leader at the facility."

Most recently, Ms. Smith served as the Assistant Superintendent of Operations at the Wabash Correctional Facility since 2005. Julie began her career as a correctional officer with the Department in 1983 and has moved up the ranks. Her experience includes serving as a Classification Supervisor, Correctional Counselor and as an Assistant Superintendent for the past six years.

Ms. Smith has a BS in Criminology from Indiana State University in 1983.

About The Department of Correction

The Department employs over 8,000 employees and houses 24,000 adult and juveniles in 32 facilities, ranging from minimum to maximum custody, prison camps, juvenile facilities and work release centers. The Department's home page on the Internet can be found at: <http://www.in.gov/indcorrection>. The Department's Re-entry Site can be found: <http://www.reentry.in.gov>.